2nd Full Time Charter Season Wrapping Up!

The second half of the 2013 season certainly went by quickly and we were pleasantly busy. And thus we come to the end of our 2nd full charter season. The season has been a great success filled with some great adventures with some great friends, new and not so new. We also had time for other fun things including enjoying the festivities during the 2013 St. Thomas Carnival. Every charter went smoothly and we had as much fun as did our guests. Highlights of the 2nd half of the season are to be found later in this newsletter and photos from some of these adventures are posted on our website under Past Adventures. Now we have the rest of the year to have fun for our selves starting with a mini vacation to Tortola. We stayed in a nice Hotel for a week right next to the boat yard where Jamann was hauled out of the water to have a variety of maintenance and repair tasks performed. She's back in the water now and looking good as new. Later in July we plan to sail over to Puerto Rico to visit friends Margarita and Michael Barnick and to play touristas visiting some of the popular places to see while in Puerto Rico. A return trip to St. Croix is also in the plans possibly for August.

More delicious recipes are coming.

2013 Charter Highlights – 2nd Half!

The first half of the season was just a warm up for the busy 2nd half of the season. Kathy's best friend Helen Flynn chartered with us in March allowing us to celebrate Helen's birthday down here with her. As part of the week long celebration we did a little shopping, the St. Thomas zip line and a little diving. On March 16th we caught up with Sally & Tim McIntyre, Kathy's friends from Oxford, PA for dinner in Cruz Bay. There were in St. John for their annual vacation. Perhaps next year we'll get to take them out on a day sail. Then on May 21 we picked up Jane and DC Conero at Cooper island to begin a 9 day charter around the BVI including a trip over to Anegada. Jane and DC had spent 2 nights at the Cooper Island Beach Club prior to the charter and then spent another 3 nights there after the charter giving them the best of both worlds. On April 3rd Bruce Moffit (former co-worker of Jim) and Jon Hendrickson stopped in St. Thomas while on a cruise. We enjoyed the day with Bruce and Jon doing the walking tour of downtown Charlotte Amalie and lunch at Cuzzin's Restaurants, one of our favorites. April 7th we caught up with one of Jim's ski instructor buddies, Carrie Perry, along with her husband Todd, Jeanne Miller and Robert Neslon. Todd and Jeanne were attending a conference here in St. Thomas at the Marriott and they all joined us on an off day for a day sail over to Brewers Bay for some snorkeling. April 13th was the arrival of our favorite first mate, Diane Vickers, returning for another charter on Jamann, this time bringing her sister and brother-in-law, Mary Lynn and Charlie Eggers with her. Taking them around the BVI we made it to the Bubbly Pool on Jost Van Dyke, the Baths on Virgin Gorda and the Treasure Caves on Norman Island to mention a few activities that week. Good friends Lyn and Joe Brubaker chartered with us in May. Their charter in the US Virgin Islands included some sailing (circumnavigating St. John), some hiking (the Lameshur Bay trail to the Great House and the petroglyphs and the Leinster Bay trail to the Annaberg Sugar Plantation), some snorkeling (just about every where we stopped) and plenty of time to just relax and enjoy books, adult beverages and engaging conversation. Kathy's sister and brother-in-law, Karen and Kent Harper along with cousins from the Miller clan (Gordon, Mary, Deirdre, Scott and Kelsey) came to St. Thomas the end of May for a few days of sun and fun at the Marriott. We spent time with them having dinner a couple of nights, snorkeling, beach time and shopping on St. John, and taking a sailing day trip out to Turtle Cove on Buck Island on Jamann to swim with the turtles with everyone on board for happy hour at the end of the day. This month we did a day sail for Ron Heasley (from Bucket List Tours) and his guests who were vacationing on St. John at Coral Bay. We sailed around to Leinster Bay and snorkeled around Waterlemon Cay. And we'll finish up the season with a day sail in July with Beth Moore and family out of Cruz Bay, St. John. Combine all of that with the highlights from the 1st half of the charter season and you'll see that it has been an exciting, fun and busy 2nd charter season. A very special thanks to everyone who came down to see us in 2013. Looking forward to more great times with great people in 2014.

2014 Charter Season!

Now is the best time to start planning to join us for a Jamann Sailing Adventure in 2014. If 2014 is going to be your year to come down and have fun with us on a charter we should start now deciding on your destination (British Virgin Islands, US Virgin Islands or the Spanish Virgin Islands), choosing the type of activities you are most interested in and then building a custom itinerary just for you which is one of the ways Jamann Sailing Adventures stands out from other charter providers. Keep in mind that our regular charter season is January 15 through July 15, which is the BEST time for sailing adventures in the Virgin Islands. We already have a couple of 2014 reservations confirmed and scheduled. Contact us as soon as possible so that we can look at availability for the dates you have in mind, get you at least penciled in on the schedule and then begin working out the details for your sailing adventure with us. Don't wait – the charter schedule for 2014 is expected to fill up quickly as it did for this last season. And if you are thinking that 2015 might be better for you please let us know that, too, so that we can make note of it and stay in touch with you as things develop. Let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Living the Dream!

After more than a year and a half we still get up each morning, go up to the cockpit to greet the beautiful sun shine and cool breeze and say WOW! Over the next couple of months we're headed off for more adventures and to check out new places that we haven't gotten to yet to add to our list of places that our guests will enjoy. We appreciate all of the support and well wishes we have received from everyone.

Thanks and see ya in da islands, mon!!!

Life is GREAT! Arrrgghhhh!
